FOREWORD

The members of the Senior Class have now completed their high-school course. May they realize their responsibilities as future citizens and may they grasp all opportunities which will lead to success and to the enjoyment of life.

To the faculty of Columbian High School we leave this book as a remembrance of our accomplishments, and we sincerely thank them for the patient manner in which they have borne our failures and short-comings.

To the underclassmen we leave this book as a reminder of the happy days which we have shared with them.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1938, dedicate this page to the memory of Miss Ruth Ann Wade, whose example of sincere and untiring devotion to her pupils, will always be held with great respect in the hearts of the students of Columbian High.

HIGH SCHOOL SONG

We're loyal to you, Tiffin High;
We're Gold and Blue, Tiffin High
We'll back you to stand 'gainst the best in the land
For we know you have the sand, Tiffin High—

Rah! Rah!

So smash that blockade, Tiffin High,
Go crashing ahead, Tiffin High
Our team is our fame protector
On! boys, for we expect a vict'ry
From you, Tiffin High

Rah! Rah!

The Girl Reserves carried out the football theme this year for their program. They had a football game on November 1st and 2nd in the gym and were dated.

Many interesting meetings were held during the year, including a talent program presented for the Dads.

The annual Girl Reserve Carnival was held, and also the annual dance at the T. A. C. C. The girls gave away in the spirit of giving.

Several of the girls went to Toledo in March for a conference to plan for Camp Walbridge, the camp for G. R.'s.

The advisors for this year were Mrs. Robert Fisher, Miss Ruth Keil, Miss Mary Shipley, and Miss Florence Neligh.

The cabinet officers for the past year were Emma Scouton, president, Martha Wainwright, treasurer. The chairmen of the committees were: Elsie Cole, service chairman; Helen Price, publicity chairman; Betty Jane Shertzer, program chairman. Two new offices added this year were room and committee.

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club which was organized in 1923, is the largest mixed-group organization of the high school. As in previous years a separate club has been maintained for the sophomores, who must earn four points to enter the senior club.

Meetings are held on alternate Fridays, when a play is presented by the members. The different groups of the club include make up, coaching, staging, and costuming. The serious-type play was used more this year than formerly. One of the students wrote and produced her own play.

Among the public performances was the Christmas program at which two excellent plays were given. Plays were also presented for such organizations as the Rotary Club, Home Economics department and a Parent-Teacher meeting. The club sponsored a Shakespearean comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew," which was enacted by the Heidelberg Community Players. The Buckeye League drama festival in which groups from Fremont, Sandusky and Tiffin, Columbian took part was held April 22nd, with the Tiffin club as host.

The climax of the season was the year play, "Peg O' My Heart," which was well portrayed by the following cast: Margaret Hopkins, Harold Holstetter, Mary Alice Bour, Irene Egbert, Robert Field, Ray Goetschius, Ross McCord, Marjorie Price, and Howard Smith.

The club is under the direction of our capable advisor, Miss Mary who devotes much time to the success of the club.

The officers of the club this year were: President, Owen Knapp; Treasurer, George McElheny; and Secretary, Mary Ellen Geller.

After many months of anxious waiting, we sophomores finally had our first Dramatic Club meeting on Friday, January 7, in the big study hall. At this meeting there was a discussion of the point system and nominations for the officers for the year were made. Those elected were as follows: President, Evelyn Reese; Vice-President, Francis Greune; Secretary, Dorothy Egbert.

The club meets every two weeks, at which time members participate in the presentation of plays. The advisor of the Sophomore Dramatic Club. Credits are given for taking part in these plays. After receiving four credits, the student is eligible to become a member of the Senior Dramatic Club next year.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

One of the most coveted desires of a high-school student is to earn a place in the A Cappella Choir. Try-outs were conducted on the first day of school, and a great many pupils responded. Forty-five were successful.

The choir met and organized, and then began weeks of intensive rehearsals. The initial appearance was the program for the teachers' tea. Then came the Christmas concert for the entire student body.

Later in the season, concerts were given for the Parent Teacher Association, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, and an assembly program for the Junior High School. The year was climaxed by the participation of the choir in the Buckeye League Music Festival held in Fremont. The choir made a fine showing and much

DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

The Drum and Bugle Corps of Tiffin High School begins practice for its activities during the school year, in the latter part of August.

For the past two years the corps has accompanied the members of the Elks Club to Sandusky for their annual conference, and last year was awarded first prize in Drum Corps competition. The Drum Corps also played for the Christmas celebration, the Doll Parade, Armistice Day, and Arbor Day, and attended all of the school football games, both here and out of town. The corps attracted considerable attention through its use of blue and gold lights at night games. This innovation was first displayed at the Bellevue-Columbian football game.

At the first of the season the corps members elected officers, who are as follows: Elsie Cole, commander; Shirley Speed, vice-commander; Lucy Ann Hasemeyer, adjutant; Martha Weinig, bugle sergeant, and Evelyn Reese drum sergeant. Kathleen Rule was chosen as drum major.

ORCHESTRA

More interest and marked improvement have been shown in the school orchestra this year under the capable direction of Mr. George Wherry. This year we have played at many Civic Forum gatherings, several open dramatic club meetings, the orchestra given by Main Street School, the year play, and the graduation exercises. We played at the combined orchestra concert in January, and we gave a concert with our high school band.

Orchestra practices were held during the first period each Tuesday morning for the string section, and for the entire orchestra during the first period on Thursday morning.

Members of the orchestra this year were: violins, John McQuate, Robert Frantz, Reed Henderson, Pauline Imhof, Ruth Hanna, Janet Gilliam, George McElheny, Marjorie Butcher, Ross McCord, and George McElheny, clarinet, Ernest Hasemeyer, and Robert Van Osdol, concert flute, Pauline Imhof, Thomas Sunchcomb, and Elsie Cole, and Evelyn Reese and Marjorie Kinsey.

NATURE CLUB

Row 1 Pearl Trachsel, Margaret Stoler, Mary J. Fishbaugh, Ruth Ann Haxson, Anna Louise Beals

Row 2 Mr. Lutz, Victor Cook, Richard Callendar, Raymond Doran, Doyle Balreich, Arlington Beck

The regular meetings of the Nature Club were held on Thursday of every week.

This year the club decided that each member would present one project pertaining to nature. In addition, two general projects, to be carried out by the club as a whole, were planned—the beautifying of the surroundings of the school by planting shrubbery and the building of a bird bath for our school grounds.

Many outside activities including bird study and classification of flowers and trees were enjoyed by the club. During the winter the club made charts indicating the positions of the various stars.

An exchange was held by members at Christmas time.

A number of meetings included the showing of moving pictures furnished by the State Department of Education.

The officers were Mary Jane Fishbaugh, president; Richard Callendar, vice-president; and Raymond Doran, secretary.

SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

This year the scholarship team competed in a classification which included all schools with an enrollment of four hundred or more pupils. As a result, the competition was immeasurably keener than last year when Columbian competed in a classification which excluded the large city high school.

Considering this fact, the team as a whole came through very well. In each district twenty of our pupils were in the group who were thus honored. The team as a whole placed fourth in the Bowling Green District.

A list of those who placed in the first ten follows. Elsie Cole, third in chemistry; Victor Geiger, seventh in chemistry; George Baron, first in general science; Allen Britton, seventh in general science; Lester Roby, fourth in first-year algebra; Tom Stinchcomb, fifth in plane geometry; Francis Feasel, ninth in plane geometry; Robert Smith, first in American history; George McElheny, second in American history; George Woessner, ninth in world history; Agnes Goshe, ninth in first-year Latin; Marjorie Good, tenth in first year Latin; Eileen Robb, tenth in first-year Latin; Margaret Voss, tenth in first-year French; Georgiana Sloan, tenth in first-year French; Robert Field, second in second-year French; Augusta Karp, sixth in second-year French; Maxine Camper, fifth in tenth-year English; Bob Friedman, ninth in tenth year English; Doris Meese, fourth in twelfth-year English.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The new Mathematics Club was organized this year under the supervision of Mr. York. The membership is open only to those seniors who have had second year algebra and solid geometry. The club met for the first time on September 14, 1914. It has a president, a vice-president, and a secretary. The meetings are held on alternate Fridays. The purpose of the group is to further their knowledge in the field of practical mathematics.

Members have worked with the slide rule, sextant, and transit and have planned field trips with the county surveyor and to Perkins Observatory at Delaware.

MAGAZINE SALESMEN

One of the high spots of school enthusiasm came this year in November when the Blue and Gold Staff started their own magazine campaign. This was the most successful to date with the acquirement of 813 subscriptions. A net profit of approximately $45 was cleared by the sale of the money made for the Blue and Gold Staff. This money was used for the purchase of books, drama costumes, and other activities not self-supporting.

Competition was carried on between the classes instead of between two teams as had formerly been the custom.

The Junior Class won the first prize of $5 with 303 subscriptions; Seniors came next, to win the prize of $3, with 286 subscriptions. The Sophomores handed in 224.

One "Blue and Gold" was offered to the student turning in the most subscriptions. The person next in line received twenty-five cents toward a "Blue and Gold."

Added interest was brought about by Mr. Daniel's award of first and second prize to the Juniors bringing in the most subscriptions.

Star Salesmen turning in twenty or more subscriptions were as follows:

Raymond Doran	66	Mary Kelbley	27
Janet Gihnam	36	Malcolm Ford	25
Marie Dutnall	32	Esther Mae Willoughby	24
Armin Kiesel	20

The members of the Blue and Gold Staff owe a great deal to Charles Cross for starting the campaign rolling by selling forty-five books.

GRIDIRON BATTLES

In the face of unusually strong opposition and woeful lack of fast backfield men Columbian's little battalion under the generalship of Coaches Burkett and Seele chalked up a fairly creditable record of four wins and five reverses. The Blue and Gold eleven, however, probably had the most powerful line in the Buckeye League.

Columbian 13, Bowling Green 6. (There, September 17)

After several weeks of mastering plays, limbering up stiff knees and backs, came the opening tussle with the powerful undefeated Bobcats. Don Bero lugged the ball into the end zone for two Blue and Gold counters. DeBusman and Gundlach cleared the would-be tacklers from Bero's path while the line opened up gaping holes in the enemy forward wall.

Columbian 10, Bellevue 0. (There, September 24)

With the score deadlocked at 0, five minutes to play, and Tiffin's ball on Bellevue's 15-yard marker, it was a crucial moment; Fullback Gundlach saved the day by deftly kicking a field goal—the first since 1924—to put T. H. S. out in front. DeBusman added a touchdown to clinch the victory. The team was seriously handicapped by the absence of Charles Cross, veteran center.

Columbian 21, Willard 0. (Here, October 2)

Willard's undefeated and unscored-upon Railroaders met their Waterloo at the hands of an inspired homecoming Blue and Gold eleven. The rout started at the beginning of the second frame when Tiffin marched 70 yards for a touchdown. Gundlach ripped through huge holes in the enemy line for two more counters. Right End Porter had the unfortunate luck of having a touchdown on a lateral called back.

Columbian 6, Findlay 18. (There, October 8)

In the beginning of the affray the Burkettmen displayed their superior strength by marching the length of the gridiron for a goal. A temporary relapse at the beginning of the second half allowed Findlay's star Van Fleet to spring 90 yards for a touchdown. Statistics show that Tiffin outplayed the Trojans by far. Probably Columbia's overconfidence and mistakes were responsible for the unexpected setback.

Columbian 6, Fremont 19. (Here, October 15)

Before a record-breaking crowd of 4,000 fans in Redwood Stadium, the Burkettmen put up a stubborn resistance against one of the strongest Little Giant teams in recent times Melvin Hoeng, aggressive Columbian end, played the most brilliant defensive games of his career. "Mel" persistently broke up Fremont plays and stopped runs around his end. DeBusman's unusual punting and line smashing added another bright spot to the battle.

Columbian 8, Norwalk 0. (There, Friday, Oct. 22)

In a gruelling contest the Blue and Gold brigade routed the undefeated Norwalk eleven. The Maple Leafs boasted of having the strongest combine in years. Charles Cross, star center, spilled the Norwalk halfback for a safety to draw first blood in the second quarter. Through the aid of the terrific pounding of the Columbian line, DeBusman added six more counters in the third quarter.

Columbian 7, Sandusky 34 (There, Friday, Oct. 29)

Handicapped by the absence of Fullback Gundlach, who was laid up because of injuries, Columbian went into battle against the rugged Sailors. Bill DeBusman, although a marked warrior, played a bang-up game. The Columbian line also did itself proud. Its devastating charges permitted the backfield to lug the pigskin twice as far as the Sanduskians did from the line of scrimmage. Inability to devise a defense against Sandusky's unusually fast backfield probably was most responsible for the defeat. As a result the Baytown speed merchant, Geno Balconi, managed to sprint 61, 56, 31, and 55 yards for touchdowns.

Columbian 0, Fostoria 7. (Here, November 13)

The Redmen from Fostoria cashed in on a pass interception in the first quarter to snatch what looked like a setback out of the fire. Tiffin gridmen, fighting with everything they had against the highly reputed Fostoria eleven, chalked up thirteen first downs to the invaders' six. It was at least a moral victory since Fostoria had one of the most successful teams in years.

Columbian 0, Junior Home 24. (November 20)

A surprise pass and running attack by the Juniors' light and fast eleven proved the Blue and Gold's downfall. However, the slippery, icy ground on which the game was played, made it extremely difficult for Columbian's unusually heavy line to move effectively.

Twelve seniors donned their uniforms for their last game. The graduating warriors were ends, Melvin Hoeng and Raymond Porter, tackles, Hayward, Frey, and Davidson, backs, DeBusman, Gundlach, Terry, and Walcutt.

COLUMBIAN HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALLS ON A RAMPAGE

In one of the most fruitful campaigns in years, the Columbian five won the County City and Buckeye League championships. The Burkettsmen bowed before only three teams, in close decision affrays.

Bowling Green, 27-23, (Dec. 10). The Blue and Gold combine started off on the right foot by nosing out the snappy Bobcats. A first quarter spurt put the Tornadoes out in front by eight points. The Tifinites played tip-top ball to stay out in front and carry away the decision.

Bellevue, 23-25, (Dec. 17). Bellevue, by a spectacular last-half rally, snatched a surprise victory from Columbian's smooth working five. The outcome was in doubt until the very last second of the wild melee. Wilhs Mitten turned in an exceptional performance—fighting for possession of the bounding ball every minute of the game.

Fostoria, 29-27, (Dec. 22). The Columbian warriors traveled to Fostoria to chalk up their second win in three starts. It was one of the foulest tussles of the season—Conrad, Mitten, and Patterson being disqualified for amassing four fouls each. Center Mel Hoerig was the outstanding star of the game. In the first half he hit the basket for 15 points which enabled the Tornadoes to stay out in front.

Sandusky, 39-16, (Jan. 7). Sandusky Blue Streaks met the most decisive defeat ever administered them at the hands of a Blue and Gold brigade. Mitten with 12 points led the attack while the rest of the team clicked to register the final count.

Fremont, 25-24, (Jan. 14). The Blue and Gold five came through a hard fought game on top. The match was in doubt from beginning to end with the score in a constant deadlock. Late in the fourth frame foul shots were converted by Wall and Mitten to break up the 23-all tieup.

Findlay, 24-28, (Jan. 21). The Tifinites held their own against an inspired Trojan five on the home court. However, in the fourth quarter the Blue and Gold quintet was weakened by the loss of Mitten and Conrad by way of the foul gate. The Trojans managed to forge ahead then in a last minute rally.

Bucyrus, 51-30, (Jan. 22). Smarting from a close decision defeat by the Trojan five, the Blue and Gold overwhelmed the luckless Bucyrus quintet. Bill Kerschner, with 14 points, led the scoring attack while the rest of the squad followed suit to demoralize the enemy by a 51 to 30 triumph.

Fremont, 31-25, (Jan. 29). The Tiffin cohorts came through to repeat their earlier conquest of the Little Giants. Until the last quarter the affray was an exciting see-saw affair. In the third frame Mitten rang up four points to break up a 20-all deadlock. From then on the Tornadoes held the score in their favor.

Sandusky, 30-24, (Feb. 4). The victorious Blue brigade—minus the services of Mel Hoerig, star center—repeated an earlier Buckeye League triumph over the fighting Sailors. The Blue-Gold five amassed a first quarter lead which they never relinquished.

Junior Home, 43-26, (Feb. 8). In the first game of the city championship series, the Juniors were decisively trounced. A first half spurt put the Columbian cohorts on the long end of an 18 to 12 lead. In the last half the Blue and Gold Brigade rolled up a formidable count that left no room for doubt as to the outcome. Mitten outdid himself when he led the scorers with 18 counters.

Calvert, 28-21, (Feb. 16). The battle for the city cage championship between Tiffin Columbian and Calvert was held in the Junior High gym. The Senecas gave everything they had during the first three frames. The lead changed hands continuously up until the latter part of the third quarter when Bero and Mitten rang up seven points to give the Tornadoes the winning lead.

Findlay, 32-24, (Feb. 18). Findlay, previously humbled by Fremont, was back with Tiffin for the Buckeye League championship. In the deciding game, every member of the Tiffin five clicked to perfection to turn in the most notable performance of the year in the Findlay gym. The local combine chalked up a 12-4 first quarter lead and held the advantage throughout that fast, furious battle. Incidentally, that victory gave Tiffin its first Buckeye cage championship.

Willard, 42-27, (Feb. 25). The Buckeye, County and City champions traveled to the railroad city for their last court contest before the Sandusky tournament. As a result one more scalp was added to their large collection of ten victories.

SANDUSKY SECTIONAL CLASS A TOURNAMENT

Mansfield 27-29, (Fri. Mar. 4). As fate would have it, the local Tornadoes were matched with one of the strongest teams of the Sandusky tournament. Tiffin found itself at a serious disadvantage on account of the unusual height of the Mansfield five. The outcome was settled in the last ten seconds, when a goal by Mansfield broke up the deadlock in their favor. Because of that basket it was Mansfield and not Tiffin that went to the statewide tournament at Columbus.

NOON INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

Noon basketball continued this year to be one of the favorite athletic activities. Eight teams entered the noon cage series which extended from the beginning of February to the latter part of March. Each team had a chance to compete in three contests in the elimination schedule.

Four evenly matched fives survived the first twelve games and were eligible for the tournament held the second week of March. In the first game, the Senior B quintet barely edged out the Sophomore B group in a 17 to 18 decision. The second game of the series proved so close that an overtime was needed to decide the issue in favor of the Seniors. The final game between the two Senior teams proved the most exciting of the week. A last-half rally upset the favored Senior A quintet 17 to 20.

The season wound up with the Columbian interclass champs bearding the champion Junior High sectional five 21 to 14.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public administration and financial management.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures and guidelines for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in data collection, verification, and reporting, ensuring that all information is recorded accurately and consistently.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges and obstacles that may arise during the record-keeping process. It provides strategies and solutions to overcome these challenges, such as improving data quality, enhancing communication, and implementing robust security measures.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of technology in modern record-keeping practices. It highlights the benefits of using digital tools and systems to streamline the process, reduce errors, and improve the efficiency of data management.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes by emphasizing the ongoing nature of record-keeping and the need for continuous improvement. It encourages stakeholders to regularly review and update their practices to ensure they remain effective and relevant in a changing environment.

FEATURES

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the autumn of 1934 our class, as Freshmen at Junior High, took the center stage for the year. We started our ten months of preparation with a pep rally and we entered the pageant of Junior High. The physical department opened the parade with the "Seven of Clubs" which was led by all of our brawny members.

Bowling Green State University offered to our scholarship team honors in the various subjects and those who placed in the subjects were: George M. Egan, sixth in algebra; Joe and Paul Horak, seventh and tenth in mathematics; Jarmila Horak, eighth in science; Edna G. and Irene Meehan, ninth and tenth year Latin; and Willa Hollingshead, seventh in tenth year English.

Our dramatic contribution for the year in the form of an operetta, "Sunbonnet Sue," was very successful, and at its close we Freshmen felt we could leave Junior High with an honorable record.

The next year we were transferred to Columbian High where all our troubles and a great many of our joys awaited us. For a time, it was little more than a change of scenery for us. So, we made a few adjustments and then found our way through the labyrinth of the school. It was a little strange to get accustomed to looking up to older students.

However, we recovered gradually as we fitted ourselves into the many opportunities that awaited us. Among these organizations were: The Perseus Club, Y. A. Chapter, Columbian Club, Irish Club, Orchestra and Band. The Student Body of Columbian High was organized and grew from our class. We felt akin to the stage.

We were granted time for class meetings to elect officers. The result of the election was:

George Gundlach	President
Fred Kishler	Vice-President
Willa Hollingshead	Secretary
Albert Allman	Treasurer

For our colors we selected scarlet and gray; for our flower, the scarlet rose; the motto, "Second to None."

Our 1936 scholarship team made a trip to Bowling Green, where the following students received prizes: Joe and Paul Horak, sixth and seventh in mathematics; Jarmila Horak, seventh in tenth-year English; Jarmila Horak, seventh in tenth-year English.

At last the big event of the year—Sophomore Prom!!

We returned to school September, 1936, as Juniors. After finding our former places in the school organizations, we elected

Bill DeBusman	President
Mary Jane Fishbaugh	Vice-President
Betty Jean Trotter	Secretary
Owen Knapp	Treasurer

Then came our first big problem!—Junior Senior Prom. We financed this by a very successful Junior Faculty game. Also, many of our students participated in the dramatic club year play, "Tiger House."

This year our high school took first place in both district and state with our scholarship teams. Those in our class who came back with honors were: Eric Cole, who placed first in play; George McElheny and Robert Smith, who took first in mathematics; and Dorothy Schaefer, who placed third and seventh in first year French, and Doris Meece, who placed first in second year French. A few weeks later the commercial contest at Bowling Green was held and the members of the class received honors in shorthand, bookkeeping, and stenography. Estherbelle Wolford was successful in bookkeeping.

As Seniors, Columbian High School became our castle. Once again we had moved to the top of the high school building. At year's end, our class started out on the home stretch with a desire to obtain as much as possible from this, our last year.

The senior class officers for this year were:

Robert WyndhamPresident
Richard HoffmanVice President
Paul HawkinsTreasurer
George McElhenySecretary

In May we sent our last scholarship team to represent us at Bowling Green. Although we had a better competition than last year, the team which we sent ranked first in the district. George McElheny, first in mathematics, and Robert Smith, second in American history. Robert Field, second in French I, and Augusta Karp, first in English. Eric Cole and Victor Geiger, third in play, and Dorothy Schaefer, first in chemistry. In the commercial team, Doris Meece placed first in shorthand and Mary Jane Williams, first in second-year shorthand.

The students who won honors in the scholastic tests held at Heidelberg College on April 10 were: George McElheny and Robert Smith, first and second in history; Jarmila Horak, first in literature, Victor Geiger, first in chemistry, David Heath, second in literature, and Mary North, second in mathematics.

For the senior play, our class chose the presentation, "Pride and Prejudice."

We were especially proud of our basketball squad, which, this year, for the first time in Columbian High School history, won the Buckeye League Championship.

The festive high lights of the term were: the Senior Class Party on February 16, the Junior Senior Prom on May 1, the senior excursion to Denik in Michigan, May 17, Baccalaureate, June 5, and Commencement, June 8.

As we leave Columbian High we are leaving behind a phase of our life in which we have we have carried out a motto that will guide our class motto—"Second to None."

—Augusta Karp

Class Song of 1938

Words & Music By Vera Anita Mollenkop

The musical score is handwritten and consists of four systems of staves. Each system includes a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The first system includes a 'Chorus' label. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat signs.

CLASS SONG OF '38

Here is to pledge our whole life through
Here is a class for Gold and Blue
Our hearts and minds we will combine
In the years to come, for . . .

Dear old school days have passed by
And will never more be nigh
Our love bonds will grow strong
As the years go on

We shall try to live the code
Always strive to reach the goal
And to remember our Good old Tiffin High.

—Vera Anita Mollenkop

Joanne. "Is it true that exercise will kill germs?"

Claudine. "Yes, but it's tough teaching the dumb things to exercise

Answer Me This

A man married a widow by the name of Elizabeth. She had two daughters. What did he have?

Answer: A second hand Lizzie and two runabouts.

Mr. Davidson (in history class): "Do the Eskimos have organizations?"

M. J. Fishbaugh: "Certainly,
ever hear of the Arctic Circle

Mrs. Hayward (in note to teacher). "Do you think my boy is really trying?"

Teacher: "Madame, he is the most trying boy in school."

Miss Stofer (in geography class): "Where does steel wool come from?"

Jimmy C. "I want—er some—er—face powder for—er—a present for a young lady."

Clerk: "Yes, sir, would you like to taste it?"

Miss Herron (to senior girl): "Correct this sentence—Us fellows are going."

Senior girl: "Our fellows are going."

Mr. Bailey: "Mary, what effect does water have on blue litmus paper?"

Mary K: "It makes it wet."

Fremont Cop: "What's the idea of speeding through this city at the rate of forty miles an hour?"

D. Shrode: "I think there is something wrong with my brakes and I want to get home before I have an accident."

Interested Friend: "Is Bob a good driver?"

F. Mohr: "Well, when the road turns the same time he does, it's just a coincidence."

Mr. Bailey: "Where do bugs go in winter, Paul?"

P. Davidson: "Search me."

Mr. Lutz: "What are the two great classes of animals?"

A. Whisper: "The Dead and the Living."

LaMar B. (over telephone): "What time are you expecting me?"

Opal M. (icily): "I'm not expecting you at all."

LaMar: "Good, then I'll surprise you."

R. Porter: "I bought one of those suits with two pairs of pants."

B. Patterson: "How did you like it?"

Porter: "Not so swell, it's too hot wearing two pairs of pants."

Sam Rozenman was brought before the judge for starting a riot.

Judge: "Ten dollars or ten days."

Sam: "I'll take the ten dollars, Judge."

Hah! Hah! You Chase Me!

"Lips that touch liquor shall never touch mine,"

The maiden declared with fervor divine

The cave man then answered with mirth-hilling glee,

"Lips that kiss poodles shall never kiss me."

Bill: "Smuthe's wandering in his mind."

David: "That's all right, he won't go far."

Highwayman: "Your money or your life?"

Kishler: "Take my brains, I need money to go through school."

Walcott (in describing his difficulties to Miss Bastian): "The greatest trouble I have in singing is to be able to strike the right notes."

Bright Young Freshman (to Conductor): "Is Noah's Ark full yet?"

Conductor: "All but the monkey jump on."

Teacher: "A fool can ask more questions than a bright man can answer."

C. Beck: "No wonder so many of us flunk in exams."

First Flea: "Been on a vacation?"

Second Flea: "Nope, just been on a tramp for a couple o' months."

The printing industry always accepts the responsibility of leadership and with bold determination seeks to set up higher standards. Progressively year after year we offer better facilities for production of modern printing to exacting buyers.
